To the Honourable the Councell of Warre sitting at Whitehall.

The humble Petition of Colonell Nicholas Borlace.

Shewing

Hat the Lord General! Fairfax 27. of Feb. 1646. Writ to the Lord Gen. Cromwell, that your Petitioners goods were taken from him to a great value, contrary to the Articles of Truro, and prayed his endeavour for your Petitioners releife, and sent withall your Petitioners case stated by the Judge Advocate. The Lord Gen. Cromwell communicated it to the Committee of complaints, and his Excellency being then of that Committee with Sir Robert Pye, and Mr. Knightly examined your Petitioners cause, and the refult was, that Mr. Knightly then Chaire-man should report to the house, that your Petitioners goods were taken from him contrary to his Articles, & that they voted them to be restored, but Mr. Knightly by reason of more important businesse could not report it until he was removed from the house, whereby your Petitioner was necessitated to Petition the Lord Generall Fairfax, who referred it to a Councell of officers, and upon due confideration of his Petition, they prayed the Lord Gen. Fairfax to direct his Letters to Col. Bennet to examine the businesse, and see Justice done. Col. Bennet accordingly examined it, and certified that the whole substance of your Petitioners complaint was true, and his Articles directly violated. The 13. of Iune 1649. The Lord Fairfax by his Letters signified to Mr. Iohn Ash then Chaire-man at Goldsmiths Hall, that your Petitioner had 500 l. worth of goods taken from him contrary to the Articles of True, he being to enjoy his goods, and pray'd it might be allowed him in his composition, or longer time given for payment, untill the Commissiopers for releife of Articles should give judgement in the Cause. And thereupon your Petitioner presented his complaint to the Commissioners for releif of Articles, who required the direct answers of the Committee of Cornwall thereunto, who confesse their Agents to have seized all the particuler goods mentioned in your Petitioners complaint; and that your Petitioner hath acted nothing against the State since the Render of Truro. Your Petitioner doth fully prove by witnesses, that the goods they took from him were worth 527 l. besides soure Horses, and eight Cattell worth three fore pounds taken from him by Mr. 10. Iago one of the present Commissioners, who still detaines them; And that the Committee confessed they were taken from your Petitioner contrary to his Articles, and promised he should be allowed the vallew of them in his Composition. Your Petitioners cause hath been put off from hearing severall dayes before the Commissioners for releise of Articles by the Committee, and Commissioners Letters for Sequestrations in Cornwall, who tooke away his goods and are concern'd in the cause, upon pretence of examining witnesses, after publication, and two peremptory dayes appointed for hearing, and thereby got it deferred untill the Commission for releife of Articles was determined, yet examined not one witnesse; and although the Court ordered them to restore the goods they had taken from your Petitioner since his cause depended there, and to forbeare seizing, or intermedling with his Estate, untill that Court sould declare their Judgement, yet they disobey it, and proceed so violently, as they have not left your Petitioners wife and children bread to cate

May it please your Honours, your Petitioner doth humbly pray your Honourable Recommendation of his sufferings and losses (by the violation of his Articles) to the Parliament, humbly begging that they wilbe gratiously pleased to give order for the discharge of his sequestrations and Fine in Goldsmiths Hall, being 3201. inconsideration of the goods first taken from him; and for restitution of his goods and money since forced from his wife and children, whilst his cause depended before the said Commissioners for releise of Articles.

This Pettion was ordered by the Court of War, to be examined by some Officers and Members of the Court, and by them reported to the Court, that they found the substance of it to be true. Tho. Manets Advocate.

And your Petitioner shall pray, &c. NIC. BORLACE.

To bis Excellency the Lord Geneall Cromwell.

May it please your Excellency.

Am commanded by the Court of War at Whitehall to give your Excellency to be informed that upon the inclosed Petition of Col. Nicholas Borlace to them directed, alledging that he being comprised within the Articles of Truro, hath notwithstanding had above the value of 500 l. in goods and Cattell taken from him by the Sequestrators Agents, contrary to the sixth, and tenth of the said Articles, and desiring them to recommend his sufferings and losses by reason thereof to the Parliament; he having been from time to time deserved, and could hirherto get no releis, not withstanding severall applications, and Letters from the late Lord Gen. Fair ax, and your Excellency to that purpose; and upon the report of some Officers, appointed to examine, and inquire into the truth of his Allegations in the said Petition, that they find the substance of them to be true; and that his said losses were not at all considered in his composition. It appearing that the power of the Commissioners for releis upon Articles is determined; and that the saith of the Army in the breach of their Articles in the Petitioners case is violated, it is their earnest and unanimous desire, that your Excellency would be pleased to take his said Petition into your consideration, and to afford him releis either by your Letters to the Parliament, desiring the discharge of his Sequestration and Fine in Goldsmiths Hall, being 3201 from the time it was set in consideration of his goods so unduly taken from him being about the value of 527 pounds, or otherwise by taking such effectual course for his releis, as your Excellency in your wisdome shall think most meet; and having nothing more in commands I remaines.

My Lord Your Excellence we of sick fall so
